10th April 1797.

The Governor and Deputy Governor attended Mr. Pitt about the Loan, and brought from him the following answer.

Governor & Deputy Governor's Report
from Mr. Pitt of his deferring negotiations for a Loan. —

That Mr. Hammond being on the point of setting out to Vienna, with Instructions relative to the present Situation of Affairs, the General Object of which will probably be explained in the House of Commons to day - He had therefore thought it right under these Circumstances to defer for a few days, proceeding in the Negotiation for the Loan.

20th April 1797. —

Governor & Deputy
Governor's Report
of Mr. Pitt's propositions for the Loan.

The Governor and Deputy Governor, at the request and appointment of Mr. Pitt waited on him, this day, and met the Gentlemen who proposed to offer Terms for the further Loan, requisite for the present year.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer mentioned, that the Sum wanted, would be Millions 16 $\frac{1}{2}$ for this County and the Emperor - and ———— 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ for Ireland.

That,

Mr Pitt's propositions concerning the Loan.

That he should reserve a liberty to issue Exchequer Bills as at present, to the amount of 5 Millions: though probably not more than Three, will be wanted. - These Exchequer Bills not to be taken in payment of the first or second payment on the new Loan; except as far as the sum of three hundred thousand Pounds, which were issued previous to the 17th of January last: all others, after the expiration of Three Months from their date, to be taken in payment of any Instalment on the Loan of Eighteen Millions; or any Instalment after the second of the now proposed Loan.

A power to be reserved to issue Three Millions of Exchequer Bills, at the end of this Year, payable at any period not less than Three Months, and subsequent to the last Instalment on the new Loan.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer also reserves the power of Issuing Exchequer Bills on the Credit of the Land and Malt Duties 1798. either to the Bank or to the Public.

Discount on prompt payment proposed to be 4th of 100. but reserved for further discussion.

The Deposit of £10 M^l on Eighteen Millions to be on Friday 28th Jun^o - The subsequent Payments to be
