 Considered Mr. Freshfield's proposal to give Mr. Bwile a General Retaining Fee. Governor authorized to concur therein on certain Reservations which are embodied in a Resolution entered on the Minutes.

5 Sir Alex. Spearman calls to acquaint the Gov<sup>l</sup> that he had been told by the first Lord of the Treasury to take his opinion on the best mode to be adopted to raise the Sum which would be required to provide the Expense of the "Defences of the Country" estimated at 8 Millions to be spread over a Term of 7 or 8 Years. His own Opinion (Sir A. I) lent to a Plan something in accordance with that of the said Wright. He wished to know if it was likely any such Proposition would be entertained by the Bank.
 I told him from what had fallen from the Deputy Gov<sup>l</sup> Mr.
 Cotton I thought not. He would see Lord Palmerston again on the subject & report the result of his Interview.

At Mr Mortimer calls. As acts of the Bank should be done require it, discount an additional 8000 £ having the collateral security of his freehold Property in Jefferys St. Marygate. The Gov<sup>ty</sup> gave him no hope that his request would be complied with. It would only be to save the House from a suspension of Payment and then only after an examination of their Affairs by a Professioned Accountant.

HARRIS & BASSETT'S CIRCULAR.

OFFICE, 8, LEADENHALL STREET, LONDON.

JULY 30TH, 1860.

IMPORTS.—Very large of Wheat, Oats and Barley.

WHEAT.—The large arrivals being a good deal for Millers' account, causes them to hold off for the moment. Sellers, however, are very firm, and a retail business is done at last week's prices.

BARLEY in good demand, and fine sweet samples sell readily.

BEANS AND PEAS about the same.

OATS.—Anything out of condition is 1s. cheaper, but good qualities bring nearly as much money.

FLOUR.—Without change in value.

INDIAN CORN was 1s. cheaper on Saturday for arrived cargoes, but to-day there is more enquiry, and sellers are firmer.

4 Interview with Mr. Dore & Mr. Helps on the subject of the transfer to the Bank of the Management of the E. I. Stocks. The only questions asked were the signing of the dis: warrants by two Directors & the necessity of a Penny Receipt Stamp being affixed to each. If the Stamp should be found requisite the E. I. Co. is to bear the expense and not the Bank.

5 Mr. C. L. Brown called at the Governor's seat to him the following Minute: The Bank are unwilling to authorize a departure from the Rule of not permitting a Clerk in the Drawing Office to overpay any amount, but the Bank are quite willing to receive from Messrs Barclay Bevan & Co. Stock Ex: Bills or other approved Securities to be held in Deposit so that if by error or unexpected circumstances they in the Clearing should be overdrawn the overdraft would be sanctioned on condition that it be repaid the following morning. Mr. Brown accepted a promise that the advance should be made which the Deputy Governor hesitated to give.
